NRVC CONVOCAION

THE NATIONAL RELIGIOUS Vocation Conference (NRVC) is a professional organization of religious vocation directors providing support services, resources, and training for vocation ministry. Founded in 1988, NRVC represents approximately 500 religious institutes, in the United States and in 20 countries around the world.

Every other year NRVC sponsors a convention that gathers approximately 400 vocation ministers, major superiors, and formation directors. The purpose of this biennial convocation is to educate about contemporary vocation ministry, to develop new skills, and to renew commitments of vocation promotion and awareness in the church.

Advertisers interested in sponsoring materials for the registration packet or in sponsoring events and workshops at the convocation should contact the NRVC office.

ADVERTISING RATE CARD

HORIZON is an award-winning journal for vocation ministers and those who support a robust future for religious life. It is published quarterly by the National Religious Vocation Conference. HORIZON is dedicated to:

- Assisting vocation directors in their professional and personal growth as ministers;
- Educating and engaging community leadership, church leaders, and others who support vibrant religious communities.
- Providing thoughtful, practical articles about all aspects of vocation ministry;
- Engaging in the broader trends and concerns that affect religious life and new membership.

Reach those men and women committed to vocation ministry in the United States, Canada, and abroad.
